Rosefield

Uniting Church

in the heart of Highgate

G'day Folks,

Fringe Season is upon us. It is wonderful to be in Adelaide while the fabulous fringe festival is on. I hope you've all been seeing lots of interesting theatre or music. I've seen a few things so far, the incredible dusty feet mob were terrific (as usual). The first time I visited Adelaide was during the fringe festival a few years ago. I flew in from Perth and was blown away by this artistic city. These moments of joy, of celebration of creativity, are essential. They are important moments that feed our souls. They provide the necessary nourishment for the journey.

This Sunday, we are celebrating the transfiguration of Jesus. This was another high moment in Jesus' ministry. He and a few close friends went up the mountain and had a Holy and scared experience. Peter wanted to build shelters and remain in that removed sacred experience. Jesus, on the other hand, led them back down the mountain and out to serve their neighbours. The very next story we have is Jesus healing people at the bottom of the mountain.

In the Christian life, we have these sacred and holy moments, these events which feed our souls. They are important and needed. Jesus is with us in those moments. Jesus is feeding us in those moments. Jesus is also leading us back down the mountain and out into the world to serve with love and with grace.

I pray you enjoy this wonderful festival season and continue to follow Jesus as he leads us to love our neighbours.

Blessings,

Richard

PANCAKE DAY

DATE CHANGE: Sunday the 13th of March. (THIS IS A DIFFERENT DATE TO LAST WEEK)

9am near the netball courts for a gold coin donation pancake.
All money raised will go to Uniting Care

We need a few volunteers to help serve the pancakes in line with our Covid plan. Let Lorraine know if you are keen to help out.

Helen Filby will be making gluten-free and gluten-full pancakes. Yum.

Garden Group 4th March – Botanic Gardens kitchen garden

Our first outing for the year will be held on Fri 4th March, with a visit to the Botanic Gardens Kitchen Garden. Although specifically designed to introduce children to food gardening, this unique interpretation of the veggie plot should be interesting to older eaters as well. Afterwards we can view the dahlias in full flower, and the rapid-growing tatum arums getting ready to produce “corpse flowers”. Morning tea afterwards at the Gardens. Meet at 10am in the church carpark for carpooling, or at 10.30am at the Hackney Gate(off Hackney Rd...) Alice McCleary 0419 808 635

The Grove Op Shop

This week we delivered 2 more loads & 3 bikes to the Grove Op shop. We were speaking to Lesley who manages the food and emergency supplies & asked if there was anything they needed. She said bedding was always needed. One man came in last week & was sleeping on the floor with only a pillow! Toiletries & emergency supplies were always needed. She said several people had been thrilled with a small tube of toothpaste as they'd been cleaning their teeth with soap on their finger! New underwear, especially for teenagers is also required.

If you are able to help in any way either with goods, or a donation, please leave them at the church, or give to Helen or David Filby.

Your generous help is much appreciated.

The poster features a light pink background. At the top left, there are two overlapping cinema tickets, one red and one blue, both with 'CINEMA' written on them. To the right of the tickets is a QR code. The main title 'INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY' is centered at the top in a mix of red and dark blue fonts. Below this, a pink rounded rectangle contains the text 'C'MON C'MON and LICORICE PIZZA' in dark blue. The dates 'SUNDAY 6TH AND TUESDAY 8TH MARCH' and the price '$20 7PM SCREENINGS' are listed in dark blue. The venue 'MITCHAM WALLIS CINEMA, TORRENS PARK' and the ticket URL 'tickets at: url.com/Humanitix.WnCD' are also in dark blue. A large, stylized illustration of five women in various colored hijabs (brown, blue, purple, teal, red) is the central focus. The text 'HELPING AFGHANISTAN'S WOMEN AND CHILDREN' is written in a dark blue, curved font around the women. At the bottom left, a small paragraph of text explains the partnership with the Unley Rotary Club. At the bottom right, the Unley Rotary Club logo is displayed.

Ash Wednesday Service
Lament for Asylum Seekers

You are invited to share in a service of lament for the continuing inhumane incarceration of asylum seekers in Australia and around the world

When: 11.00am-12noon Wednesday 2nd March

Where: Unley Uniting Church
187 Unley Road, Unley

We cannot simply stand by and watch our fellow human beings treated with such indignity. This is our opportunity to show the depth of our concern for those seeking refuge from persecution, terror and war.
